The ideal candidate will have the following education and experience:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Experience in community/public health and/or human services programs.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively with all levels of the community and staff
- Experience in event planning and facilitating programs.
- Bilingual (English and Spanish) preferred.

The ideal candidate will also possess the following knowledge, skills, and abilities:

- Communicate effectively and professionally with staff, patients, community members, and partners to promote DSCHC through events, programs, and/or face-to-face contact, in either large groups and/or one-on-one environments.
- Provide resources, referrals, and information regarding DSCHC or other agencies and their services to ensure community members are aware of different programs available.
- Follow CHW Core Competencies, including, but not limited to, project-specific education and CHW training conferences, workshops, and classes.
- Share information and resources acquired through conferences and trainings with staff members, partners, and community members, as appropriate.
- Document all client/participant outreach contact as required and on appropriate forms.
- Provide assistance to the school-based programs, such as the Edible Ajo School Yard, Future Health Leaders Club, and Middle School Bike Program.
- Perform program planning and coordination, along with data entry duties related to chronic disease collaborative(s).
- Actively participate in and support Quality Improvement efforts, including testing and implementation of changes as appropriate.
- Attend meetings as requested.
- Perform all other duties as assigned.

Desert Senita Community Health Center (DSCHC) will recruit, hire, train, and promote persons in all job titles without regard to age, color, disability, gender (including gender identity), marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, or other status protected by applicable law. In addition, all personnel actions such as compensation, promotion, demotion, benefits, transfers, staff reductions, terminations, reinstatement and rehire, company-sponsored training, education and tuition assistance, and social and recreational programs will be administered in accordance with the principles of equal employment opportunity.
